

The SIIA Intellectual Property Roundup is a weekly email publication that updates subscribers on the key intellectual property policy and enforcement issues affecting the software and digital content industries.